

9 In My Garden

Tony Michaels

David Stanley

$\text{♩} = 110$

Rose walks to centre stage slowly. She sings to Joe.

pp

6

Rose: In my gar den Peace-ful and kind, In my gar den

11

Qui-et like a dream, Ma-ny co lours Soft, cool and green, In my gar den. a lone

16

noth-ing could hurt you there. When you came 20

Ro - ses ap-peared be-fore my eyes A - gain and a-gain, Pret-ty flo-wers

24

bloom-ing and bright In my gar den_ be-side you No-thing could hurt you there.

29

p Joe: In our gar den_

35

Time in-ter-vened In our gar den Still peace-ful and green, In our gard-en_ The ro ses we shared will grow there for-e-ver, You care for them in my name!

40

Joe takes a rose from his pocket and hands it to her..

44

Whilst Rose is gazing at the flower, Joe backs away up the central aisle

48

You care for them in my name

8va

Joe pauses, standing upon a raised platform, with back to audience..

Looking forward and up to heaven...

53

Rose: Please hear my prayer,

f

Joe turns round to sing his line with Rose, then exits.

59

Show me your there I won't for-get you. Rose and Joe: I'll ne-ver for-get your grace.

Rose places the rose in a vase on the piano and lifts up a picture of Joe..

65

dim. rit.

PPP