

2a English Rose

Lyrics by David Stanley and Jenny Hitchcock

David Stanley

$\text{♩} = 110$

6

I may be some broom swee-per now But 11

one day I'll change this some - how, The lan-guage won't hide what I see and one day I'll help you be free. For now I can ne-ver re - turn She's here, in my gar-den of dreams!

16

rit.

22 $\text{♩} = 110$ molto espress.

Now I have found my Eng - lish Rose, I'll al-ways stay right here. Gar - den of Eng - land now to call home, No-thing will keep me from you._____ Now that I've found my Eng - lish Rose,

32

42

How I've been swept a - way. Si, Tea__ mo mi Ro - sa In - gle-sa I love you my Eng- lish Rose!

53

Company stand and sing with Joe (still swaying)

Now I have found my Eng -lish Rose, I'll al-ways stay right here._____

Narrator
Now he has found her He'll al-ways stay right

62

Gar - den of Eng - land now to call home, No-thing will keep me from you._____ Now that I've here_____ Now to call home Noth-ing can keep him from her_____ found my Eng - lish Rose, How I've been swept a - way. Si,

71

 Now that he's found love Si,

78

// (stop swaying) rit.

Tea__ mo mi Ro - sa In - gle - sa I love you my Eng - lish Rose
 Tea__ mo mi Ro - sa In - gle - sa I love you my Eng - lish Rose