Lyrics:

- 5 In the inn - keep-ers yard. there stands an old barn. So bad - ly in need of re- pair.
- 9 Where there are don-keys and cows some sheep and a pig And the floor, but for dirt is quite bare.
- 13 It's full of strange smells, the de-cor quite rough Fit on-ly for snout horn and hoof, And if
- 18 you look up you'll not be sur - prised To see a large hole in the roof

But there are things to be said for a hole in the roof, At least it pro-vides some fresh air! And if you look through it you'll see quite a lot You might not have rea-lised was there. By day there's the sky dressed bright-ly in blue White clouds pass ing prou dly a- loof. Then for a few glo-ri-ous mo-ments of gold, The sun finds the hole in the roof.

27

31

35

39
